

October 2019

Hello!

I am so excited to share this amazing messenger bag tutorial with you.

This design was inspired by my meditation beads. In particular the seven colored stones which represent the Chakras.

Please let me know how your bag comes together and if you will be gifting it or keeping it.

I have been using mine for a week now and really love the colors and overall size. It holds my MacBook, journal & Planner Systems perfectly!

Endless love & respect ♥
